High Holiday Food Drive Sponsored by JFS and the Rabbinical Association Sept. 1-30

JFS and the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City's annual Holiday Food Drive is scheduled Sept. 1– 30. The traditional holiday food drive helps JFS feed approximately 800 families each month with dignity and care.

For the Holiday Food Drive, fill a grocery bag with the pantry's most-needed items in September: tomato products, canned fruit, toothpaste, toilet paper and paper towels.

Return your bags [INSERT TIME, DATE, LOCATION]. You can also drop off donations: during JFS's Community Food Drive from 5 – 6 p.m., Sept. 13 in Brookside, 425 E. 63rd Street; 10 a.m. or noon, Sept. 19 at the Jewish Community Campus; in the JFS barrel in the lobby of the Jewish Community Campus during business hours; or by appointment in Brookside. Online shoppers may have their donations shipped directly to JFS by purchasing from the "JFS Pantry" Wish List on Amazon.
